- 4.4.2 Late Proposals, received after the prescribed time and date shall be rejected and shall be returned unopened to the Companies. NBP shall not be held responsible for either non-receipt or late receipt of Proposals due to any reason.

4.5 Evaluation of Proposals

- 4.5.1 NBP shall evaluate the proposal in a manner prescribed in the Prequalification Criteria and reject any proposal which does not conform to the specified requirements.
- 4.5.2 NBP may reject all proposals at any time prior to the acceptance of a proposal. NBP shall upon request communicate to any Company who submitted a proposal, the grounds for rejection of its proposal, however NBP shall not justify those grounds as per Public Procurement Rule 33.

- 4.5.3 NBP shall conduct a comprehensive, fair, and impartial evaluation of all proposals received, verifying the same with documentary evidences provided by Companies as required in the Evaluation Criteria in Section 8.
- 4.5.4 NBP shall shortlist top 3 companies based on the aggregate score secured by each company in Technical Evaluation & Presentation as given in Section 8.

The Evaluation process comprises of two phases:

- Phase I – Technical Evaluation (Submission of Profiles)

NBP Evaluation Committee will scrutinize applications and supporting documents based on the eligibility criteria submitted by companies. The shortlisted companies will be invited for presentations.

- Phase II – Presentation by advertising companies

The advertising companies will present their creative/artwork (concepts, strategies, artworks / preliminary designs) based on the presentation guidelines. Short-listed companies will be invited to deliver their presentation to an Evaluation Committee/Jury comprising a PID representative, an external media professional and NBP's representatives' for the final selection of the company on NBP panel.

4.6 Announcement of Results

- 4.6.1 After finalization of the evaluation, NBP as per PID guidelines, shall select top three (03) Companies on its panel based on their qualifying marks obtained as per Qualification Criteria. In case if NBP terminates its arrangements with a prequalified Advertising Company or the Advertising Company withdraws its decision to provide its services after issuance of Prequalification Letter, NBP shall reserve the right to issue Prequalification Letter to the next succeeding Advertising Company (based on qualifying marks obtained as per Qualification Criteria) in a manner whereby NBP shall have three (03) Advertising Companies on its panel.

- 4.6.2 The Prequalified (Successful) Companies shall be informed through a “Prequalification Letter”.
- 4.6.3 In the next phase of procurement process, NBP shall invite Proposals only from Prequalified Companies.
- 4.6.4 NBP shall communicate to those companies who have not been pre-qualified with the reason for not pre-qualifying them.

4.7 Objections to Terms of Prequalification Document

- 4.7.1 Should a Company object on any ground (including any ambiguity, discrepancy, omission or error to any provision or legal requirements set forth in this Prequalification Document, the Company must provide written notice to NBP setting specifically the grounds for the objection, however within ten (10) calendar days after publication of Invitation for Proposal for Prequalification.
- 4.7.2 The failure of a Company to object in the manner set forth in the above paragraph shall constitute a complete and irrevocable waiver of such objection.
- 4.7.3 Submission of proposal in response to this invitation shall construe to Companies consent on the contents of the Prequalification Document including terms and conditions appended therein, thus rendering any subsequent objection as null & void.

4.8 Modifications of Prequalification Document

- 4.8.2 NBP may modify the Prequalification Document prior to the submission deadline, by issuing Corrigendum, which will be posted on NBP website.
- 4.8.2 NBP will make reasonable efforts to notify Companies of modifications to the Prequalification Document in a timely manner.
- 4.8.3 Notwithstanding this provision, the Company is responsible for ensuring that its Proposal reflects any and all addenda issued by NBP prior to the Submission Deadline, regardless of when the proposal is submitted.

- 4.9.1 The Proposal for prequalification will remain subject to NBP's acceptance for one hundred and eighty (180) calendar days after the Submission Deadline, or such a later date as per Public Procurement Rules 2004.
- 4.9.2 Submission of a proposal signifies that the proposal is genuine and not the result of collusion or any other anti-competitive activity.
- 4.9.3 In submitting its proposals, a company agrees that if the Proposal is accepted, the Company shall submit Technical / Financial proposal on or before the deadline specified by NBP.
- 4.9.4 Failure to furnish any and all documents or other materials required in the proposal, shall be deemed an abandonment of the proposal offer.
- 4.9.5 The successful company shall be prequalified for two years. The period of appointment of the selected companies shall preferably be for two years. This shall not, however, be extendable beyond two years except with the approval of PID, which may allow such extension for maximum period of six months only.

4.10 Modification and Withdrawal of Proposals

- 4.10.1 Any Company may revise/modify or withdraw Proposal on own initiative at any time before the Submission Deadline, provided that written notice of the revision/modification or withdrawal is received by NBP's concerned officer prior to the deadline for submission of Proposals.
- 4.10.2 Revised/modified proposal must be received on or before the Submission Deadline.
- 4.10.3 No Proposal shall be revised/modified or withdrawn by a Company after the date and time for submission of Proposal.

4.11 Cancellation of Prequalification Process

- 4.11.1 NBP may cancel this process at any stage as per Public Procurement Rules without assigning any justification, or in case of no competition between Companies or pooling-up towards their proposals/offer.

4.12 Updating Prequalification Information

4.12.1 Companies shall be required to update the financial, personnel and resource information used for prequalification at the time of submitting their Proposals, to confirm their continued compliance with the qualification and evaluation criteria and verification of the information provided at the time of prequalification. The proposal shall be rejected if the Company's qualification thresholds are no longer met at the time of proposal.

4.13 Disqualification of Companies

4.13.1 NBP shall disqualify a Company at any time if the information submitted by the Company is found to be false and materially inaccurate or incomplete.

4.13.2 Direct or indirect canvassing, impelling or influencing any representative of NBP for any purpose related to the procurement process is strictly prohibited, and shall lead to immediate disqualification of the Company.

4.13.3 In terms of Rule 19 of PPRA Rules, 2004 NBP may also permanently or temporarily bar and/or blacklist a Company from participating in respective procurement proceedings and future tenders in case the Company is found to be indulged in corrupt and fraudulent practices (as defined in PPRA Rules, 2004).

5. Termination/Cancellation of Enlistment

Divisional Head, Strategic Marketing Division, Logistics, Communications & Marketing Group of NBP with the approval of the competent authority at NBP shall be entitled to immediately suspend or terminate / cancel the enlistment of the Advertising Company, in any of the following events:
